

Down With a Fight

By feari

Submitted: September 10, 2006

Updated: September 10, 2006

More poetry, sorry guys. I just haven't had time for drawing... ^_^;; Anyway. This is another one that I really like that I've written.

1. Down With a Fight

Kicking, screaming, clawing, biting, snarling, punching,
Watch me fight with curses spit
Into your face,
Drag me down,
I dare you, try.

I won't go down without a fight,
Curses flung, fist aflame,
I swear it now,
Just you try
I won't be had.

This fight is fierce
But I won't go down
Without my two cents
I'll kick and bite and curse and snarl
I'll try my best to win my way.

Fight fiar, fight hard
i'll give it my all, my toughest shot,
I may lose,
Damn it all,
I'll lose the game,
But here I guarantee
you won't walk away unscathed.

You'll hurt like me
You'll beeld like me
You'll tremble with Mind-numbing exhaustion
Your heart will flutter, Falter....

yes, this is how it feels,
i've lost the fight,
But neither have you won

I hope you know,
This bitter loss,
The stagnant rancid taste
of disappointment and defeat.

Your heart will shatter

It's Waterford* fragility Abused and tortured.

too many pieces to mend...

Know this feeling,
Learn it well,
I have, you know.
I'm on my knees,
Disgraced and bruised,
But I didn't go down without a fight,
My body broken,
Spirit too,
I cry my shame
Out in the mud,
But I didn't go down without a fight,

Never, have I gone down without a fight.