*No, it's not dirty people, it's just the best-fit option out of what's given...

Anyway. That's about it.*

1. Together So Bright

Together we would shine so bright
Like the stars up in the night
We'd light the world, standing together
Hand in hand, side by side.
Two powers working for one aim
Two players on the same side of the game
Our chins lifted, heads faced forward
Confident and looking to what will be Glowing like light refracted through a piece of glass
The two of us so far above everyone else's class
Stepping ahead, dreaming the future
Imagine what the two of us could be Dreaming of before there was time
A time when maybe you were mine
To keep by my side if only you'd
Be right there with me
Don't burn the chains and scorn our remains
And throw away the chance
To perhaps be on top of the world.
Now won't you please take my hand
In hopes that together we will stand
And shine so very bright
Amidst the dark of night.
