

The adventures of A D & E

By Dumbledorelover

Submitted: May 10, 2006

Updated: May 10, 2006

I don`t know

1. 1-3

The Way it All Started My point of view Well it was rather a stormy night when Albus Dumbledore picked me up to go to Hogwarts. When he told me I was a wizard I didn't quite believe him. Then after a while I believed him. Since I was a first year, I wanted to go with him to buy my school supplies. Albus and I are the only ones that say Voldemort's name. I was expecting a few surprises, but I wasn't expecting what I found out later.

Ashleigh Parezo

The new DADA teacher at Hogwarts was Ashleigh Parezo. She was sometimes late for class which ticked us off a bit, but she was nice so we dealt with it. She was a bit shy though. She did some fun things though. Too bad at the end of the year.....

Ellen

It was amazing that I didn't see her earlier. I didn't know what I found out the day I or we got to Hogwarts. We were in the same house. We were both in Gryffindor. We were best friends, but we were also SISTERS and not just sisters TWINS! In class Ellen and I were always scheming on how to get Professor Marko at the end of the year. We were the evilest ones in our year. Welllllll in our house any how. When we went by even Peeves hid. We were EVIL! Wherever we went we were together. We were inseparable. Our bond with Dumbledore was very tight.

Surprises

It was exam time and they already had to face some challenges. It was almost time for the practical DADA exam when another Gryffindor student, Blaze Fiery came barging in the common room. He shouted "The exam has been post-poned!" "WHOA" said Ashleigh and Ellen at the same time. They rushed down to see what was wrong. Then they saw a scene. "HELLLP" screamed the DADA teacher! She was being attacked by Voldemort. "NO!" the girls said. They both jumped in front of her. At that moment they transformed into horses. "I've invented a spell for this just in case" said Ashleigh with her wand in a pocket in her fur.