1. The Rabbit And The Redhead

DISCLAIMER: I do not own Foster s, Dick Van Dyke Show, The Bold and the Beautiful, or DBZ.

Title of story : R and R aka The Rabbit and The Redhead

by Falconwolf:

(In case you are wondering about the title, it is a Fosters Home for Imaginary Friends romance, humor, and super-natural story pairing up none other then Frankie and Mr. Herrimen aka the rabbit and the red head.

As the title suggests, it is about Frankie and Herrimen.)

Well, hare goes nothing; now on with the fic.

Da blonde and Da Blootifull: default chapter

Frankie had just gotten out of the shower, put on her robe and about to put her towel on her head when she looked in the mirror, and she saw that her hair was blonde.

Wondering how this happened, she saw a bottle of peroxide; she thought, This has Bloo written all over it .

She put the towel on her head and went to find Bloo. She found him trying to play paddleball and yelled, Bloo, did you replace my shampoo with peroxide?

Bloo said, I thought peroxide was a type of shampoo; it is, isn't it?

Bloo, shampoo and peroxide are not the same thing. Shampoo washes hair AND peroxide dyes it blonde!

Then, she removed the towel from her head revealing the blonde hair instead of red. Bloo said, Wow, you look hot as a blonde!

Bloo! Frankie said, If I wanted to change my hair, I would have done it my self, and that comment was WAY OUT OF LINE MISTER!

Chapter 1&& well hare we go

Taking place after the peroxide incident, Frankie calls Bloo a male chauvenist pig

(sorry for the spelling)

Frankie storms off. Madame Foster sees Frankie and says, What's with the new look? Frankie sez to her what Bloo did to change her hair and his comment about her being hot.

Madame Foster said, I didn't mean your hair, I meant your mood. Don't they say blonde's have more fun? Point taken , Frankie smirked.

She wanted to see what other reactions she could get. Eduardo hid and said, Wh ooo-ooo-ooo are you, blonde stranger?

Before Frankie could say anything Eduardo screamed, Ahhhhh! then ran away. He then literally runs into Bloo who is telling Coco and Wilt about Frankie s new look.

Eduardo said Blonde stranger is after me. Bloo gets up and rubs his head,

That ain't a stranger that was Frankie; I thought peroxide was shampoo, and she went from being a fiery redhead to a blonde. Well, still with the temper. Wilt says, I'm sorry but that's not okay, not okay at all. Coco said Co ccocoa co co cocacooa , which meant OHH, you are in so much trouble.

Elsewhere, Herrimen was looking for Frankie to do her chores. Frankie had just gotten dressed, brushed her hair and had it down for a change.

She thought to herself that was the kind of reaction one could expect from Ed. Her thoughts were soon interrupted by Herrimen who finds her and says, Who are you? And, what are who doing in Ms. Frankie's room?

Frankie explained who she was and about Bloo and the peroxide incident. Frankie said no matter what she looked like on the outside that she was still the same person, and it would be a while for her true hair color to return.

She also wondered what other reactions she would get from Herrimen considering the first reaction was based on the fact that he did not recognize her.

Herriman said, You look nice as a blonde, but i prefer you as a redhead. Then he said, You look pretty either way. Herrimen blushed when he realized what he had said.

Frankie did not expect that kind of reaction from the giant rabbit, so she said, Thanks for the compliment; you're not so bad yourself . And she kissed him on the cheek.

Frankie went to do her chores while Herrimen was rubbing his cheek where frankie kissed him. He got that same lovesick look like all of those guys in the Frankie My Dear incident.

Frankie wondered why she did that, and Herrimen wondered why he said what he said to her and why she kissed him and why he liked it. Frankie also wondered why she liked giving Herrimen a kiss.

Could they like each other? Or, dare I say love each other? Plus, this proves for every action there will be an equal and opposite reaction.

&&&&&&&&

to be contiued in the next chapter Bloosion

The peroxide reference is from the Dick Van Dyke episode where Rob's wife dyes her hair half blonde; so, she is half blonde half her normal color. I didn't think half red and half blonde would look right, so I made her all blonde.

Da Blonde and Da Blootiful is a take on The Bold and the Beautiful. I think it's a soap opera or movie title.

Cool, Huh!

Let me know whatchoo think of this one.

CHAPTER 2: BLOOSION

One week later, Frankie's hair went back to normal. Bloo was outside playing in a thunderstorm and Herrimen yelled, Master Bloo, get in here this instint.

Bloo replied, Why don't you come out here and get me to come in yourself? Herrimen went out to drag Bloo in. But, the lightning struck Bloo and Herrimen knocking them out cold as well as fusing them into one being.

When Herrimen got up and went inside the house, he wondered where Bloo was. He went over to a mirror to see if he was okay and was shocked at what was staring back at him.

Herrimen was still a rabbit, his clothes were the same, but his fur was blue. He also found that he and Bloo were sharing his mind. Herrimen screamed, Wot happend to me (in bloo's voice), and why do I sound like Bloo?

Frankie find's the source of the scream, and said, Where's Bloo? I thought I heard him scream. What happened to you? Did you get into a fight with an angry paintbrush?

Herrimen said in his own voice, That was me; Bloo and I got struck by lightning and fused in to one being. Now, we share my mind and don't know when our voice's will switch.

Frankie said, This is bad. I need to do some research on how to defuse you two. Hopefully, it won't be permanent. Then. she went to do research.

Herrimen decided not to talk with his voice not knowing when he will sound like himself or like Bloo. They found by not speaking outloud, they could talk as their separate selves to each other in Herrimen's mind.

Unfortunately for Herrimen, Bloo knows Herrimen's recent memories and thoughts about what happend last week.

Herrimen said, Why are you looking at me that way with that big smile? Bloo said, You like Frankie! Herrimen said, I do not!

Then, why are you blushing right now just like before when Frankie kissed you last week?

Herrimen said, H--ow do you know about that? We share your mind when we don't speak outloud and that is one of your recent memories.

So, now I know about THAT even though I was not there. Herrimen sighed and said, Is it that obvious?

Bloo said, Like duh, of course it is! I mean the signs were all there for instance. when I was late for dinner, I heard what happened.

You thought Frankie kicked you, but I found out it was Madame Foster s cane that hit you. I mean you knew it too, right?

Well I guess?

Bloo said, There is a difference between a shoe and a piece of wood.

Plus, when Frankie was tickling you and holding your jacket over your head, you demanded an apology plus a punishment.

But, there was no punishment was there Mr. Herrimen? Well no, but there was an apology.

But Mr. Herrimen , said Bloo smiling again, Didn t Frankie say I'm sowwwy Mr. Heewymen, I've been a bad girl, and you said, I should say so.

I mean, even though you said that, it was like you were thinking is it just me or was that apology really hot?

Herrimen said, Uhh , blushing again. Bloo also reminded him that another example was when Edwardo brought the dog in the house.

When the dog was under the table in the dining room and slurping everybody s feet, you jumped in Frankie s lap.

Then, when you and Edwardo were the first one's to find the doggie landmine , you didn't jump in his arms, but you waited for Frankie.

Plus, you called her Frankie without the Ms. for the first time ever.

Herrimen said, Okay okay. No more examples. I'm in love with Frankie. Happy now, bloo?

Yes, very. Bloo replied.

Herrimen said, I love Frankie, but I don't know IF she likes me.

Bloo said, Why don't you ask her?

I don't want to talk in your voice, Bloo. It would be like you would be talking to her and not me.

Bloo said, Don't worry. If I stay silent in your mind, you can talk in your voice, and if you stay silent in your mind, you talk in my voice. Besides, why would Frankie kiss ya if she didn't like ya?

Point taken , smirked Herrimen in his mind.

Frankie finishes her research when Mac arrives. Frankie tells Mac of the sitch, and mac said, Oh, this i gotta see. Poor Bloo.

Poor Bloo, Frankie said, What about poor Herrimen?

Mac said, Since when did you ever care about Mr Rule Dude?

Mac, you don't understand. This research says, if two humans of the same height don't defuse them, then, the change will become permanent.

Mac said, But you and I are not the same height. THEY ARE DOOMED!

Mac, you don't understand. I'm about the same height as Herrimen and you and Bloo are about the same height. Together we can defuse them.

Let's go find them, they said at the same time.

Frankie realized that she did care for Herrimen but wondered how he felt about her. This distracted her a little bit from her research, so she took the book with her in case she missed something.

They found Herrimen/Bloo and explained what they had to do. Herribloo said with both their voices at the same time, Well, we'll try anything once.

They didn't know what to call themselves, so they decided to combine their names. Frankie and Mac said at the same time, Man, this is weird; I'll be glad when this whole mess is over.

You're telling us; talking in unison is weird, Mac and Frankie added, Yeah, it's weird for us too.

Frankie said, Then, let's stop talking in unison and get the show on the road.

Bloo said, We're going to a show. Neat! Which one?

Herrimen then replied, Knock it off, Bloo. This is no time to joke.

Frankie then said, Let's get serious and get this over with. Plus, it's weird hearing Bloo's voice come out of your mouth.

They all agreed that now was the time to act before the fusion became permanent. So, Frankie took Herribloo's Right arm and Mac took his left leg/foot because of his height and not being able to reach herribloo's other arm this would have to do.

They pulled the limbs in the opposite way at the same time, defusing them. So, now Herribloo was now Herrimen and Bloo again, and they were glad to be back to normal. Or, were they?

When Frankie read more of the next page, and she said there's a step two to this and you're not going to believe this, but the humans of the same height have to either kiss or shake hands with the imaginary friend of the same height. The question is, who does what?

Bloo said, I'm not kissing him. Then Mac said, Well I'm not kissing a bloo blob either.

Bloo and Mac smile and shake hands. Bloo said, That means that Frankie and Herrimen have to kiss.

The book says it has to be on the lips, said Frankie.

Then, Herrimen said, If we must, we must.

They both gave each other a smirk then kissed each other on the lips. This kiss seemed to last a lifetime but was really for only a minute.

Frankie said, I love you, Herrimen.

Then Herrimen said, I love you too, Frankie . I know this is rather sudden but will you marry me Frankie?

Oh Herrimen, this is so sudden let me think bout it for a sec. Kay, I thought bout it, and the answer is yes!

Mac and Bloo's jaws dropped, and they both thought, What just happened?

They regained their composure and said, So you two are engaged then where's the ring?

We will look for one tomorrow. Any other questions, Masters Bloo and Mac? Mac said, Yeah, I have one. Which did you like better?

Being fused with Bloo or kissing Frankie? Herrimen said, Oh, definately kissing Frankie. Keep our engagement secret until we get a ring. That way, we can spring this news on everybody and see what their reaction is.

Bloo said, I have a question too. All the rest of them asked, What? Bloo replied, I thought you two would never get together. I mean, really, geez, FINALLY! I mean come on. Wot took you guys so long?

Frankie and Herrimen said, We guess it took a while for us to realize our true feelings for one another. Then, they both smiled and blushed.

Mac and Bloo said, This is so unbelievable; we never thought you two would ever get together.

Herrimen and Frankie said, Well you know what they say?

What do they say , said Mac and Boo? Opposites attract , the rabbit and the redhead said.

Frankie then said, Lets stop the unison talking, okay?

Then, everybody, including Frankie, started laughing.

THE END?

The reference for Bloosion in chapter 2 is from DBZ Fusion where two can become one

ONE WEDDING AND A BLOORAGUARD

(Sequel to The Rabbit and the Redhead)

I am now going to start writing a sequel to The Rabbit and The Redhead titled One Wedding and a Blooragaurd not sure of spelling.

Hare we go AGAIN&&&&&&&&&..

Default Chapter

The four of them finished laughing when Mac replied, I can keep a secret but can Bloo?

Bloo said, My lips are sealed .

Mac then replied, Then, how will you eat?

Hardy har har Mac, hardy hardy har, was Bloo's reply to Mac. Bloo then said, It's agreed. We don't say nothing about this to nobody.

Good enough for me. Mac replied to Bloo. Then he said, How about you two? . Frankie said, Yep and then Herrimen replied, Ditto .

Mac went home, and Herrimen, Bloo, and Frankie went to their rooms

Chapter One

The next day, Frankie and Herrimen went to go buy a ring, but Herrimen forgot to bring his wallet as did Frankie. They needed to find a way to get money for a ring.

They did not know what to do when Frankie noticed the local club was having a battle of the bands contest.

She said to Herrimen, This is perfect, Herrimen replied, How so?

Frankie says to him, I can get my band together to play in no time at all. Herrimen says to Frankie, You're in a band?

Yup, we're called Crimson Thunder, and WE ROCK!

Frankie looks at the poster and says, This sign says it costs 25.00 to enter.

Then Herrimen asked, How do you enter with no money?

Simple. We go back to the house, get our wallets, call the rest of band, and enter the contest to win the money for the ring.

What if you don't win? said the rabbit. Frankie replied, Even if we don't win, the sign says the 1st runner up wins money too.

My band is pretty good, so even if we don't win, we will still get some money for a ring

She then said, It doesn't have to be the most expensive ring in the USA, right?

The bunny then said to her, Plus, it would be a good excuse if anybody asks what we need to use the 25.00 dollars for. They both agreed. This was a good plan, and they decided to put it in motion, Herrimen went to go get the money and Frankie called her band on her cell phone to inform them of the contest and the contest rules.

The rule was that they could not use any of their own songs but they could use other people's songs.

This was okay to Frankie and her band because they loved playing other people's music, and they rocked out loud whenever they got together. So, this would be interesting.

Frankie thought, I hope Herrimen's task goes as easy as mine. I d better get home and help him with the plan.

Herrimen was being asked questions by Madame Foster and the gang about what he needed the money for. Bloo said with a smile sort of knowing what he needed the money for, Do ya have a hot date?

Edwardo said, Do you need the money for taco's?

Wilt said, Ed ,why would Herrimen need 25 bucks for taco's? Ed said back to Wilt, I dunno; maybe he's hungry.

Madam Foster asked, You haven't gone and gotten into some type of trouble with the law and need the money for a lawyer?

Coco said, Cocoa co coco coa cocoa, which meant, You gonna buy lotto tickets?

Herrimen said to them, You're all way off target with this one ,and it's a doozy. They all pleaded, Tell us, tell us, please!

Edwardo noticed that Frankie had just gotten back and said, Maybe Frankie knows. Let's ask her.

Frankie sez, Ask me what ed? What does Herrimen need 25 dennero for? Oh Ed, we need the money for me and my band to enter the battle of the bands contest.

Bloo said, Neat! You're gonna battle other bands in combat.

Ed said, Nooo Frankie! No fight; it not right.

Ed, it's not that kinda battle, said Wilt. What you mean by that? Ed replied.

Frankie said, Let me explain about battle of the bands. It's when different bands play music, and the best band wins.

Madam Foster said, If that's what the money's for, then go for it.

That okay with you bunny? Herrimen replied, Okay, but as long as we can all go watch. Frankie said, Then, it's settled. Me and my band will enter, and you all can watch.

CHAPTER 2

Frankie meets up with her band and says, Let's get this show on the road. Then, her band asked, Aren't you gonna introduce us to your friends?

Frankie said, Oh right. Guess I forgot to. Well, this is my granma, her imaginary friend, Mr. Herrimen, and this is Mac and his imaginary friend Bloo.

Her band asked, Are there any more music fans with ya? Frankie replied, Oh yeah, here they come now. Wilt, Edwardo, Coco, Frankie calls to them,

This is my band Crimson Thunder. Her band says, What a cool group ya got. A giant rabbit, a tall red dude, a bird plant airplane thing, and a cool purple dude who looks like something out of where the wild things are plus a blue dude that looks like he's from Pacman.

Madame Foster and Mac said, What about us? Frankie's band said to them, Hey, if you guys like music, we don't have to describe how cool you are too. Good enough for me, Madame Foster said. Me too, replied Mac.

Frankie said, You guys get to your seats, and we will get on stage. She then said to her band, Okay, we got a battle of the bands to win so let's get out there and rock and roll.

They found out there were only them and two other bands which meant they would either have to win first or second to win the money. So, it was all or nothing.

Frankie thought, This complicates things a little bit for Herrimen and me. If we are to get the ring, we need to win or come in second.

The first two bands were pretty good, so they would have to be better in order to win.

The announcer, Digg Dugg said, Up next is Crimson Thunder. This band consists of Frankie and Cathy on the guitars plus they sing too, Mike on drums, and Ike on keyboard.

They are also the backup singers. They will be playing two songs. First, they will play Wild Cherry's Play That Funky Music.

They hit it dead on. Frankie and Cathy played their guitars with style and sang great. Mike and Ike played their drums and keyboards just as well as the girls, and they sang great too.

The audience went wild with applause and could not wait for the next tune. So, they went right to next one which was also a classic Kim Wylde's Kids in America which also went over well.

The other bands thought, With those guys playing classic and us playing current, one of us will win first and second, and they will just lose.

Digg Dugg said, Okay dudes and dudetts, it's time to decide the winner.

Who's it gonna be. Crimson Thunder, Roto Rootter, or Criystel Kleer? You decide who wins by clapping and cheering, and whoever gets the most wins.

Roto Rootter got lots of cheers and clapping as did Criystel Kleer but Crimson Thunder got the most.

Digg Dugg said Crimson Thunder wins battle of the bands . The other bands said, Why do they win? Is it because you think they have a cooler name then us?

Digg Dugg said, No, it's because you can't beat the classics. Then he said, Yo! C.T.

They replied, Yeah, wha ya wan? Could you play one more song before you get this 10 thousand dollar check? , Okay, one more song then we is ouuta hare.

They played Stevie Wonder's Superstition along with the other two bands on the brass. They weren't gonna be sore losers; and since they were playing music with the winners, it was like they won too. Because, it's all bout the music afterall.

Roto Rootter and Criystel Kleer both agreed to split the second place prize. So that everybody was a winner in the Battle of the Bands and in life.

Frankie took her share of the money, and so did her band. Then the whole gang plus the band went back to the house for dinner minus Frankie and Herrimen who said they had something to do first. The rest of them wondered what they had to do and before dinner too.

They had all just finished the soup and were about to start on salad when Frankie and Herrimen entered the dinning room and Herrimen said, Attention all. I have an announcement to make before we start the entree.

Well, get on with it , Mac and Bloo said (smiling, knowing what the news was and wondering what the other's reactions would be was worth keeping this secret well secret).

All the rest wondered what the news could be. They soon found out when the rabbit spoke up.

Okay here goes nothing. He got down on one knee, took out a box, and the other's wondered what's in the box and why is Herrimen on one knee?

Frankie , Herrimen said, (making the other's think dosen't he always call her ms.? Wonder whats up?). They soon found out when she said, Yeah Herrimen, Wot's on your mind?

He then continued, Frankie, I'm not sure if you like me or not, but I'm in love with you and I'm hopping that you will marry me. The others were shocked at the rabbit's words and thought, Frankie would never marry Herrimen. Wot's he thinking even asking her for?

They were more shocked at what happened next when Frankie said, Oh Herrimen, you know how I feel about you. The other's thought, This is gonna be bad , but were surprised by Frankie's reply when she said, Of course I'll marry you. I love you too.

All of the others jaws dropped at what had just happened right in front them. The band said, We thought you two hated each other. Edwardo said, Who are you, and what have you done with the real Herrimen and Frankie?

Wilt said, Wow, this is heavy stuff. Cocoa said, Co (which meant ah the power of love).

Madame Foster said, I had a feeling bout you two, and it's about time you two got together. Bloo and Mac said, Well, opposites do attract, and they proved it. Wilt said, You two knew bout this didn't ya? They replied, Yup and we kept it secret.

Wilt said, Really? They then said, Wot. Are you nuts? We were kept in the dark just the same as all the rest of ya. Okay, if you say so , replied Wilt. Then he said, Lets get on with the rest of dinner if that's okay with the soon-to-be newlyweds.

Fine with us, said the rabbit and the redhead. Let's eat before the dinner gets cold. It's too late for that, Bloo said. Wilt said, And why's that bloo?

Because Bloo said it's chili, get it? That made everybody laugh. Then, they continued with their dinner with thoughts of the future and of this unexpected couple who were soon to be wed

CHAPTER 3

Herrimen and Frankie went to City Hall to get the marriage license and to see if there was anybody who could marry an imaginary friend and human.

They found a reverend that had an imaginary reverend just in case this ever, but not likely, happened. The reverend was a little surprised to see that the imaginary reverend would be put to use at last.

He said, I never thought that I would ever see the day that an imaginary and a human would get together, but i imagined this guy just in case this ever happened.

The human Reverend Frost and the imaginary Reverend Morris agreed with Herrimen and Frankie to hold the wedding at Foster's Home for Imaginary Friends.

Then, they paid the fees and signed the paperwork for the rings and services and license. They would have the wedding next week followed by the dinner and party.

Herrimen went to rent a tux and Frankie and Madame Foster went to buy a wedding dress. After they bought the dress, they went to rent a karaoke machine for the party plus get a caterer for the dinner. All was done.

Now was the day of the wedding.

Cathy was Frankie's maid of honor, and Bloo was the best man. Mike and Ike came to the wedding as guests. The rest of the friends were seated, and Herrimen walked to the alter with Bloo followed by Cathy, Madame Foster and Frankie.

Reverends Frost and Morris said, Herrimen, Do you take Frankie to be your wife? He said, I do.

They said, Frankie, Do you take Herrimen to be your husband? She said, I do.

The rings please , said the Reverends to Bloo. Bloo said, Here ya go.

Frankie put the ring on Herrimen s finger. He did the same and put the other ring on Frankie's finger. Herrimen said, With this ring, I do thee wed. Frankie said, Ditto.

The Reverends said, I now pronounce you rabbit and wife. You may now kiss the bride.

Herrimen and Frankie kissed. Then the Revs said, Congratulations. You two are the first imaginary friend and human to ever get married.

Bloo said, Come on let's get the dinner over with, so we get the party started.

They had the dinner, and then the party. Harrimen and Frankie had the first dance while Wilt karaoked Blue Moon.

Bloo sang with Madame Foster, and they sang Sea Cruise.

Frankie and Herrimen sang Love Will Keep Us Together and Don't Go Breaking My Heart.

Frankie sang Lets Give Them Something To Talk About, You Give Me Fever, and Here, There, and Everywhere, and Edwardo sang La Bamba.

Madame Foster got up and made an announcement that she would pay for their Honeymoon. She said, You just got married, where do you want to go on your honeymoon?

We re going to Disney World ,

They shouted, Thanks for the memories.

They left after the party to go on their honeymoon. They went to Orlando, Florida for a month, and they hit all the parks.

Including the Disney parks Universal parks, Water-parks, Sea world, Gater land and all the shops. They stayed at the Beach Club, and then, the Hard Rock Hotel.

They came back with stuff for themselves and their friends and family.

They gave Madame Foster a Mickey t-shirt, Wilt a Mickey basketball, Coco a Mickey baseball cap.

Bloo they got a pair of Mickey Mouse ears, and Edwardo a Mickey Mouse plush.

They all thanked them for their gifts and asked what they got for themselves. Herrimen and Frankie got watches; his was Mickey and hers was Minnie.

Frankie and Herrimen also went to a Disney auction when they were there. Herrimen got the 100 years of Disney pin collection and Frankie got the Gurgi plush from the 80's plus all the Captain Eo plush including both versions of Fuzzball:

the one that looked like a monkey and the one that looked like a fox. Both had the same wings and tails but the faces were different.

One month after they returned from their honeymoon, things were a little different. Herrimen now helped Frankie with the chores and they were so in love with each other and so happy.

Herrimen was helping Frankie with the dishes when she fainted. Herrimen was worried, so he took Frankie to the doctor.

Herrimen was in the waiting room for an hour hoping that Frankie was alright; he didn't know what he would do if anything ever happened to her.

He was relieved when Frankie entered the waiting room and said that she was alright. Herrimen asked, What happend to you? Frankie said, Do you remember the old rabbit tests?

Herrimen said, Do you mean the old barbaric way to find out if a woman was expecting? What of it? Then he said, W--ait a minute. You aren't&.. I mean& we&. I mean, you telling me that we&. that us?

Frankie interrupted Herrimen's rants with, Congrats, Pops!

Herrimen went to Frankie, hugged her and said, We're gonna have a baby? Frankie said, No.

No? Herrimen said. Then, what was that all about?

Frankie said, Oh, we're specting all right, but it's not one but two. We're having twins.

Herrimen could not have been more pleased except for Frankie. The doctor came out and spoke with them.

She explained that they were going to be the first imaginary and human to have kids. Because of this, the babies would be born in 3 months instead of 9.

Plus, she said that since they were the first imaginary human couple that they and all their friends and family were now immortal. Their kids would be that way too.

She also said the kids might have some transformation abilities. For example, if one was a rabbit, it would be able to transform to a human, and if one was human, it could transform into a rabbit.

He also said that they would only be babies for a week and then turn 10 years old. After that, they would age regularly until they turned 25. Then, they would not age anymore.

He also said that since Frankie had just turned 25 on their honeymoon that the same thing applied to her as well. So she would not age past her present age but could still celebrate the birthdays each year.

Three months past and the friends were talking about the soon-to-be arrival. Bloo said, I can't believe you and Frankie are gonna be parents. Wilt said, I know and twins to boot! Edwardo said I love babies they is so cute.

Coco said, Coco Co Co Ca , which meant what ya gonna name em? Herrimen said, We will name them when they get here; in the meantime, we will do a practice run.

Herrimen , said Edwardo, You will call the cab, but not for real. What you mean by that , Edwardo said. I mean, pretend to dial the phone and say what you will say when you really do call the cab.

What me say? You say: Have a cab come right away to Foster's Home for Imaginary Friends and take a rabbit and redhead to the hospital to deliver twins or something like that . Okay replied the purple horned creature.

Wilt, you will carry Frankie's bag to the cab. Wilt said, I can do that onehanded. Bloo said, Good one, Wilt. Then Bloo asked, What do me and cocoa do?

You two can go wait for the cab and inform us when it gets here. I mean for real after the practice run. Cococa coaco, which meant okaydokay. Bloo asked, Okay, who calls the doctor?

The doctor's already been called and the room has been reserved, Herrimen said. The doctor said it could be anytime now but that was two days ago, so let's do the practice run quickly.

They did the run perfectly and Herrimen said, Now, we're prepared for when the time comes. So, they sat and relaxed. Then, Frankie entered the room and said, It's time Herrimen, He said, semi- relaxed, That's nice dear.

Then he realized what she said as did the others and said, It's time just like the practice run, but all did not go as planned. It sort of went like the episode of I Love Lucy where Lucy had Little Ricky.

They finally made it to the hospital, had Frankie checked in and then they all waited in the waiting room. Boy, we all panicked, said Bloo. It was just like I Love Lucy, Herrimen asked, Which characters were each of us? Bloo said, Well, even though Edwardo is Spanish, you were Ricky, Edwardo was Fred, Cocoa was Ethel, and I was, well I was an extra, so I didn't have a character but Frankie was Lucy.

Wilt asked, What about me? I guess you were another extra like me.

The nurse came out and said Mr. Herrimen, Frankie just had the twins so you can all come in now. Can I come in alone first? The nurse said okay.

Bloo said, Can't I go with ya? Fine Bloo, Herrimen said. You can come with me, then, the rest can follow. Bloo asked, Why did you want to go alone at first?

Only Frankie knows my first name, and I guess it's about time the rest of you knew it too. Cool, I get to know second. What is it and whyed you keep it secret?

I used to go by my first name all the time until a certain movie came out; after that, I thought everybody would laugh at me.

When I told Frankie, she didn't laugh but she told me that everybody loved the character that had the same name as me. What is the name?

Okay my last name is Herrimen, but my first is Roger. Bloo said, that's sorta funny; you're another Roger Rabbit. But, it's also cool because it's a beloved cartoon character. Is that why you went to Disney World so you could spring your name on her?

Herrimen said, That and to have a lot of fun at all the parks. I also got some other stuff at the auction. Wha you get? asked Bloo?

I got 10 talking Roger Rabbits in mint condition that were never played with and talk perfectly. Can I have mine now? Bloo asked? Herrimen said, You can have yours later, but you can play with one of the two Roger Rabbits that are for the twins.

Bloo said, Okay I just wanna hear all the sayings, then we can go in. Bloo heard all it had to say, then, they went in to see Frankie.

Frankie said, Hi Herrimen. Herrimen said, You can call me Roger now. Frankie, so, where are the kin? The nurse cleaned them up and is coming back with them now. Here they are.

One was a male white rabbit with black eyes and red hair with a skunk like streak, and the other was a fully red headed baby girl with a similar white streak in her hair and black eyes also.

Bloo said, I thought human babies were supposed to be bald. The nurse said, Normally yes, but because Herrimen is imaginary and Frankie is human, the girl has a full head of hair and the rabbit is, well, a rabbit. The other powers will be revealed in time.

Until then, how bout some names. Herrimen said, How about Roxxanne or Roxie for short? Sounds good, replied Frankie. I think I'll name the rabbit Usagi after my favorite comic book rabbit Usagi Yojimbo. I mean he sort of looks like Usagi Yojimbo. That okay with you Roger?

Herrimen replied, Sounds great. Lets get the others in here to meet the kin. Bloo said, I called Mac and Madame Foster; he's taking the bus, and, with her driving, they should be here any&.,

Mac said, I'm here. Minute , Bloo finished. Then said, Took ya long enough. Well I'm here, aren't I? , continued Mac.

The rest came in and asked, Can we see the kids now? Mac said, Oh, right! What did you name them? Herrimen said, Before we get to that, I would like to tell you all my first name. They said in unison, You have a first name? Yeah it's Roger.

Mac replied, Another Roger Rabbit? Why not!

Edwardo added, So, now you two are Roger and Frankie Herrimen. Wilt said, If the name fits, wear it. Coco said, Cooocoocoa , which meant: another rabbit and redhead couple why not!

Madame foster came in the room after parking the bus and said, Bout time you started using your first name again. You should not let a movie title make you not want to use it anymore.

Herrimen said, I am now Roger Herrimen again, but don't call me Roger often; that's only for Madame Foster and Frankie to do all the time. Just once in a while for the rest of ya;

Let s say, for one day each and every month, the rest of time you call me Mister Herrimen to keep things in semi order.

You already know my wife Frankie Foster, Herrimen said jokingly (that made Frankie smile), now here are the kids names.

This is Roxxanne Herrimen or Rroxie for short and this is Usagi Yojimbo Herrimen named after Frankie's favorite comic book rabbit with the same name.

Well, this is the new and improved Herrimen family. For now, this is the end.

3. Herriman's Worst Nightmare Come True?

This is a story based on a story i looked up on DEVIANTART in a dream i had.

Title in dream My Bunny.

Title of my story Herriman's Worst Nightmare Come True?

By FALCONWOLF

This is a one-shot angst/drama story with some romance/humor at the end. The question of the story is this a dream or did this really happen?

Herriman was hopping up and down back and forth along the foyer. Since he was a rabbit this was his way of pacing.

He was going out of his mind with worry for his beloved wife and expectant mother to be Frankie who was going through premature birth with complications.

Madame Foster got of the phone and shook her head with tears in her eyes this made Herriman fear the worst.

His worst fear was realized we Madame foster said that Frankie and the twins had passed on.

This news hit Herriman like a bullet to the heart. Herriman dropped to his knees clenched his fists, then he SCREAMED "NOOOO! FRANKIE!"

He then said with tears in his eyes "this can't be happening they can't be gone they just can't be." Madame foster put her hand on Heriman's shoulder and said "we better go tell the rest of the friends about this horrible news and prepare for the funeral tomorrow."

The hospital called back and Herriman picked up the phone and said "this is a bad time could you make this quick."

The doctor explained that the reason Frankie died was that her body had deteriorated over the years from exhaustion. This news hit Herriman like a ton of bricks pain and all.

The phone fell out of his hand and hit the floor at the same time he did. He started crying, because he knew this had to be his entire fault.

Herriman was heart-broken because he knew over-working Frankie over the years had made him lose the best things that ever happened to him.

Unfortunately for Herriman Bloo was listening on the other line. He ran into the room and shouted "Herriman you monster this is all your fault! Frankie and your kids are dead and it's all because you overworked her all the time! I mean you never even gave her any credit for all her hard work! I hope you fry for this" he shouted! Then Bloo ran off crying.

Madame foster told Herriman "this isn't your fault these things just happen." Herriman said "you're wrong this is my entire fault, Bloo's right I am a monster. I mean I killed the only good things to happen to me in long time."

"Don't beat yourself up over this I'll go talk to Bloo you go get some sleep." Madame foster found Bloo sobbing his eyes out. "Bloo" Madame foster said "Herriman is not to blame these things just kinda happen."

"But why Frankie why not the monster you call an imaginary rabbit?" He then shouted "It shoulda been him and not her and the twins!" "Bloo I'm surprised at you Herriman is just as broken up about this as you are, maybe even more" she added.

"I'm sorry Madame foster I should not have snapped at him like that the news just overwhelmed me. I'll tell Herriman I'm sorry at the funeral tomorrow" Bloo said as he drifted off to sleep hoping to dream that Frankie was still alive and well along with the unborn twins.

Elsewhere in Herriman's bedroom Herriman could not sleep very well with thoughts of what he had had done to her and the twins made him dream about the funeral. In Herriman's dream he was at the funeral with the rest of the friends mourning their great loss.

Bloo said to Herriman "I'm sorry I said it was all your fault that they are gone it was just a chance of fate." Edwardo said "she will be greatly missed."

Wilt stated "even though I'm the color red I feel oh so blue." Bloo said "you're lucky I'm blue on the inside and outside."

Madame foster said "she will still be alive in our hearts and minds." Coco sang "coococoa coococoa coococa coco, caw cac caw cac," which meant Swing Low Sweet Chariot but the next sounds meant she could not finish singing the song and started crying.

Mac said "this is just too sad why must the good die young."

Herriman said the "saying goes it's better to have loved and lost than to never have loved at all He then added crying but this can't apply to losing a loved one."

"We better get back inside the house it looks like it's going to rain" Bloo said. Herriman said "you all go into the house I'm going to say goodbye to my departed family."

It was raining plus November just like in the music video Frankie liked. The similarities between this and the video went through his mind.

Axl Rose in the video had lost the love of his life and so had this now broken bunny.

He spoke softly "Frankie I'm sorry I was your downfall I can never forgive myself.

I should have noticed how hard I overworked you and I should have know the doctor was wrong about us being immortal.

He then screamed I'm such a frigging idiot you did all the work and I took all the credit. I should end my miserable life so I can't hurt anyone else, but that would not be what you woulda wanted is it? You would want me to carry on in your place taking care of all the friends and family that you loved including me.

I only noticed how much I loved you too little to late and now I'm talking to a grave containing what could have been a wonderful family. I can't forgive myself but I suppose you would."

"Frankie I will love you forever and a day and also I will always wonder what might have been." He then shouted "Bloo's right I am a monster I killed my wife and kids." Then he dropped to the ground and cried at the grave sight.

He then screamed "if this is a nightmarish dream please let me Mr. Roger Herriman wake up. Please let me wake up." "Roger wake up Herriman wake up," Herriman opened his eyes to find Frankie lying next to him on the couch. "Frankie," Herriman said "is that you is it really you? Please pinch me to make me sure I'm not dreaming." She did just that and he yelped "ow!" "That hurt, but at least I'm really awake and with you." "Wow" Frankie said "that musta been some nightmare to have you yelling in your sleep like that."

"Oh it was a nightmarish nightmare indeed oh Frankie it was." "What happened in the dream did somebody die?" "He said yeah you and the twins did and it was my entire fault." "Really how?" The soon to be momma said.

Herriman explained how she died of premature birth complications due to his stupidity of overworking her for so long and how couldn't forgive himself. The rabbit said with tears in his eyes "also there was no way to bring you back because we weren't immortal."

"Relax" Frankie said "it was just a bad dream we are still immortal" she added "as well as our soon to be born kids and the rest of our friends and family." Frankie then said "at least you didn't have a weird dream like me." The rabbit said "what was so weird about your dream."

"Weell I was on the Prom Night episode of That 70's Show and I was the English teacher that Fez hit on. I mean I was me but at the same time I wasn't. It was weird being hit on by a hormonally challenged teen."

"Who would you rather hit on you?" "Only my buunny husband and nobunny else" Frankie said with a smirk. "That can be arranged my angel" he said with a smirk giving her a kiss on the lips. "Oh you animal!" She said then started kissing him back.

They continued to kiss but after the long kiss they decided to take a break to catch their breaths. Then Herriman said "I'm relieved to see that you are still alive and kicking." Literally, he got double kicked off the couch by his unborn kids.

Herriman "are you all right?" "I'm fine and I'm glad the same could be said of you and the kids to be." She pulled Herriman off the floor and back on the couch. "Couple of kickboxers we got in there" he said with a smile.

Frankie returned his smile and said "weell they do take after you with the rabbit blood and all." "I hope they take after you more then me I'm quite a pain in the fuzzbuutt sometimes" stated the rabbit with a smirk. "Sometimes?" She said with a smirk. "Weell okay all the time" he smirked back.

He then said "I've been in love with you way before you were in love with me." "Well you kinda grew on me and I'm glad that we finally got together after so many years of anarchy." "Any examples?" The rabbit said. "Well there was that camping trip gone horribly wrong."

"How could I forget that? I went feral." "It was like bunny gone wild" he added with a smile. "Plus it was the first time anyone saw you with out any type of clothing what-so-ever."

The rabbit blushed and said "also it wasn't my creator's voice that brought me out have that trance but yours; it frightened me a little bit." "You mean because you almost hurt those you cared about or because you realized you were falling for me?"

"Both actually" said the bunny. "I tried to disguise my feelings for you by over-working you so much and I hated myself for doing that to you." Frankie said "I guess cupid wouldn't give up on us."

"Yeah it started with the blue blunder and ended in wedded bliss the rabbit said." He then added "I owe that blue blob a thank you." "Really why?"

He went on to say; "when we were one fused being he made me realize how much I loved you as only he could." "What went on in that whittlle mind o yours" she smirked?

Herriman smirked back and told her how Bloo interrogated him into admitting not only liking her but loving her plus giving him the courage to tell her how he felt about her.

Frankie said "weell he does have his moments." "That he does Frankie that he does; if it weren't for him we might have missed out on something this wonderful."

"I guess that's why you made him best man at our wedding huh?" "You know it baby!" The rabbit said. He then said "I'm still kinda shaken up by that nightmarish dream and I don't think I can get back to sleep yet."

Frankie said "then let's have a movie marathon." "What movies?" Asked the rabbit. How bout the back to the future trilogy on VHS? Fine with me replied the rabbit.

They watched the movies plus the added features holding each others hands, then after the last added feature of the last tape shown on the TV screen they rewind the tapes. With the last of the tapes being rewind they fell asleep to the whirring sound of it relaxing them to sleep in each others arms.

They did not dream the rest of the night, no bad ones or weird ones nor even good ones just a serene state of mind and a great nite's sleep.

They slept well into the morning. They weren't even woken up by the sounds of talking and wilt making breakfast.

Bloo said "awwwww loook attt the cute widdle cuddle bunnies." Edwardo said "at least he not screaming no more, he musta been having some way bad dreams to make him do dat."

"Coccococococococoa" Coco said which meant he screamed loud enough to wake the dead. Wilt called back from the kitchen "they can sleep now and reheat later.

Madame foster" said "they sure are heavy sleepers," and then added "I couldn't have imagined a more perfect match even if I tried." FIN.

Well what do know it was a bad dream with a happy wake up ending. What can I say I'm a sucker for a happy ending

Also no Frankies or unborn kids were harmed in the making of this Imbetweenquel.

This story takes place inbetween the Sequel story One Wedding and a Blooreguard. Hence the word Inbetweenquel. This story takes place one month and two days before Frankie gives birth to the twins.

4. The Time Rift Tripp

I don't own Foster's Roger Rabbit UHF Weird Al Simply Irresistible Back to the Future or Usagi Yojimbo

The Missing Week Or The Time Rift Tripp by FALCONWOLF

I thought ewe might like to know what really happened the last day of that week that Frankie went blonde.

Oh! By the way this a sequel to One Wedding and a Blooraguard and inbetweenquel to The Rabbit and the Redhead

So let's hop to it

Chapter 1

Roxxie Mac and Usagi were walking to Fosters from school. You guessed it the twins' weren't babies anymore they were 10 years old and back from their first day of school.

They went inside the house and were greeted by their parents and Bloo. Frankie and Herriman said "did you have a nice first day of school?"

Roxxie said (this is her preferred spelling of her name) "Yes we learned all the basics, Reading writing math science history English and music." Usagi said "uh yeah what she said."

Bloo said to Mac "ain't you gonna ask roxxie to the dance for next week's Friday." Mac replied to Bloo ixnay on the ance ay bloo."

Usagi said "wow Mac I didn't know you knew pig Latin"

Roxxie rolled her eyes at her brother and said Bloo let mac ask me to the dance himself.

Herriman said "ah a social gathering should we let the kids go" he said to Frankie winking at her. Frankie said "gee I don't know, I suppose they can go" she said winking back at him.

Usagi said "well watty know it's the winkamaniacs I guess they want us out of the house that night to rondevew if ya know what I mean."

Roxxie said "I guess if Captain Obvious and the Crimson Bride want to rock steady that night I guess I'll go to the dance with Mac. She added i doubt Usagi can get a date."

"I could go dancing by myself thank you vary much, but I can get get me a date no problem." The twins both said "let's go outside to test what other powers we might have besides transformation."

Herriman and Frankie were blushing because they realized their kids were mature enough to understand what they were planning for that night. Bloo and Mac said "kids sure grow up fast nowadays don't they?" Herriman and Frankie nodded still blushing.

Outside Usagi and Roxxie were flying which was one their powers and they were about to find out another wheather they wanted to or not.

Usagi asked Roxxie "so when's the dance? I forgot." "Roxxie said adjust your rabbit ears this time and listen up the dance is next week's Friday at 7th I mean at half past 7:00 on the 7th. Look wot you made me do you made me act like you!" Usagi was about to say woteva but a rift opened up in the sky pulling the sibs to who-knows-where-or-when.

Chapter two

They fell out of the rift and flew down to the ground. Roxxie said did we even go anywhere there's the house. Usagi said I dunno but these are kool watches we got.

Roxxie said "wonder wot these are for." Usagi said "must be to get back to the future." "Ha Ha" said Roxxie "but you could be onto something."

I said half past 7:00 Friday and 7th so we must be in the past probably before we were born, at least that's wot happens in the movies."

Then Usagi said "but doc I'm back I'm back from the future." Roxxie said "look in that window that looks like mom but she's blonde, this must be the week of the peroxide incident. That also means that we can't interfere or mom and dad won't get together and we won't be born." Usagi added "whoa this is heavy."

Roxxie said "you and your back to the future." Usagi added "well you know ya like it to." "Yup ya got that right where's doc brown when ya need him." Usagi said "hey check it out we're both in rabbit form we could pass our-selves off as abandoned friends and get some grub and room and board plus we can see how they got together."

Roxxie added "that would be kinda romantic, hey whatt if we had some thing to do with getting them together maybe the rift brought us here for that reason." "Usagi said okay let's find out and ding the ringer." "Roxxie said but first lets make up some names for our-selves."

Your initials are uhf for Usagi Herriman Foster so how about Uhf." Usagi said "cool i get to be named after a Weird Al movie." And "I will be Z" Roxxie said "because there are xx's in my name and it could be a spelling with a y and Z comes after y so there ya are Z."

Chapter 3

They rang the door bell and their dad to be answered the door. Usagi said "wow a bunny butler." Roxxie said "don't mind him he's a bit goofy at times."

"I am Mister Herriman and you are?" "Oh I'm Z and this my brother Uhf." "We came for the tour" they both said.

Herriman said "Ms. Frankie two new friends to show around the house." "Roger over and out" Usagi said. Herriman said "did you just call me Roger?"

He was a little worried wondering how this rabbit knew his first name. "Na it's just trucker or pilot talk." "Oh." Herriman said, sounding relieved.

"Told ya he was a bit goofy" Roxxie said. Frankie came down the stairs and Herriman blushed. Just earlier in the week she kissed him and he tried to avoid her the rest of this week, to no avail it seems.

"These two need a tour" Herriman said to Frankie. Frankie said "I need to take a shower because my hair should go back to normal today if I wash it."

The rabbits said "how bout you give us a tour Mr. Herriman." Herriman was blushing thinking about frankie taking a shower, so he nodded to say yes. Herriman gave the tour to the two of them then they went into his office. Usagi said "I'm gonna go outside or see some of the friends okay. Roxxie said "I will stay and have a normal conversation for a change with Mr. Herriman." Herriman said "so what do you want to talk about; I'm a very busy rabbit." Roxxie said "yeah busy blushing around Frankie, you like her don't you."

Herriman said "me like her don't be silly." "Come on you blushed twice around her wot happened, did she kiss you or something?"

Herriman said "uhh" blushing as red as Roxxie's hair. "She did didn't she, I know it you like her." "I Find Her Simply Irresistible!" Herriman blurted out still blushing.

"What should I do?" "You should tell her how you feel; maybe she feels the same way about you. You'll never know unless you tell her about it."

"Ya know If you put your mind to it you can accomplish anything."

Herriman said "I'll try to keep that in mind go find your brother and bring him inside it looks like it might rain." "Okay good luck with Frankie" Roxxie replied.

"See you and Uhf later Z," Herriman said back to her. Herriman thought maybe "Z is right I should not deprive my self the chance to get with Frankie I should let her know my feelings for her and hope for the best." "Yeah right," he said out-loud "and maybe lightning will strike me and Bloo and fuse us into one."

Roxxie and Usagi heard this and she said "you thinking wot I'm thinking." Usagi said "oh yeah! What?"

Roxxie said "let's use our powers to do just what he said with a lightning and thunder-storm and fuse Bloo and him into one to get mom and dad together."

Roxxie added "Let's start the rain and thunder then strike when they least expect it." Usagi added "so it was us that helped get them together after-all it's just like Back to the Future."

Usagi started the rain then thunder which attracted Bloo outside followed by Herriman then the lightning, and with the rest happening the way it was supposed to they were brought back to their own time by the watches after the kiss and proposal.

They flew out of the rift this time to their own time. They went back in the house smiling to each other knowing that they played a part in getting their parents together.

Their parent's saw them and said "what did you learn about your powers?" "Well we can fly and we can learn about history with the power of the mind."

Their parent's said "oh really, Roxxie and Usagi or should we say Z and Uhf." The twins asked their parents "wot are you talking about"

Their parents stated "That Herriman keeps a record of every tour to come through fosters and later today we were going over paperwork put two and two together and now you are..." The twins finished their parents' sentence and said "oh we're so busted."

"Okay you got us, a rift opened up sent us to the past and Usagi and I got you two together." Usagi said "I created the storm that fused Dad with Bloo," then Roxxie said "and dad I gave Bloo the smarts to talk to you about all that stuff with you inside your mind."

Herriman and Frankie said "what great kids we have and without them we would never have fallen in love." They all said "this is just like Back To The Future" at the same time then they all laughed. The End
